An "assessment" with the group facilitator is required before attendance can begin. ("Anger Management" for women & teens is 1-on-1, a "group" is not available at this time.*)

*Fee Information: If you are paying out-of-pocket, the fee for each group is based on your gross, monthly, household income using a sliding scale. (Current couples pay the regular/max. fee instead of a per person fee.) All fees include a proof of enrollment letter, handouts (or workbook for Co-Parenting), and a certificate of completion. Some fees also include the pre-group assessment. If a 3rd party/agency is paying for your attendance, a pre-authorization for payment is required. (Ask your worker to call Tami.)
